SO WHAT IS
IMPOSTOR SYNDROME?

That conflicting feeling of “extreme egomania” and “I’m a fraud!”

- Tina Fey

The fear of being found out

WHY DO WE FEEL THIS WAY?

left behind + catching up
comparison + expectation

I was 20 when I dropped out of college to head a multibillion dollar company what are you doing with your life??

I. The difference between “not knowing”
and “knowing enough”

Don't mistake being a beginner for being an impostor.

Not knowing

Knowing enough

Not knowing

Knowing enough

But really it's about learning to learn

Not knowing

Knowing enough

You

2. What you know vs. what you think other people know

Well, well, well,
how the turntables...

3. Forget about the stack

~~frontend as "easy"      backend as "hard"~~

But don't forget to challenge yourself!

4. Reframe what coding means to you

Think about what interests you - how does coding play into that?

5. Surround yourself with peers and role models

Surround yourself with role models and peers

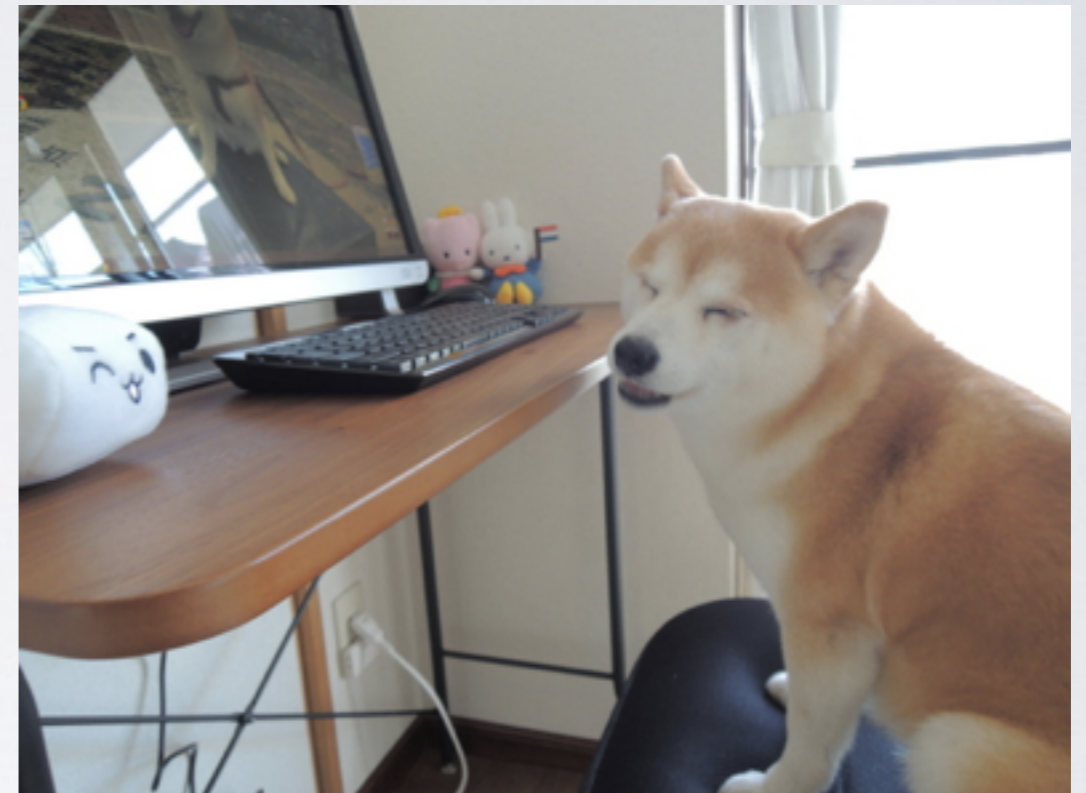

Ride off each other's momentum

6. Be proud of yourself

Then

Now

Above all, keep going.

A woman with dark hair in a ponytail, wearing a white and black striped sweater, is sitting at a desk in a room with large windows. She is smiling and giving a thumbs-up gesture. On the desk in front of her are two laptops, a purple water bottle, a blue bag, and a power strip. The room has beige curtains and a view of trees and buildings outside.
